

Actively promoting teaching Fundamental British Values at Euler

Guidance on promoting British values in schools published - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

Fundamental British values should not be confused with Britishness and things associated with the UK, such as red buses, royalty, the Queen etc... There is certainly a place for the celebration of these things but they are not the same as values. The link above gives further guidance.

Phase	Democracy	Rule of law	Individual Liberty (Being you)	Tolerance, respect and understanding (Understanding others)
Whole school approaches	Pupils at Euler have the right for their voices to be heard. We want our pupils' contributions to feel valued. Staff recognise that many of our pupils have difficulties with social communication skills and need help to share their voice and views in an appropriate way. Therefore, staff provide pupils with opportunities to be heard in a safe and well managed way. School council elections termly <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Voting for nominations towards school value awards</li> </ul> Encouraging pupil voice and self-advocacy – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>sharing their wishes and feelings at annual review</li> <li>sharing how they would like to be supported when completing risk assessments</li> </ul>	Pupils at Euler need to understand the importance of the rules of law, whether they be from our school, clubs they belong to our country. Staff refer to and reinforce these rules often, such as in assemblies and when reflecting on behaviour choices. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understanding School Behaviour and Relationships Policy</li> <li>Teaching classroom routines and expectations</li> <li>Rules for the dining room</li> <li>PCSO visits</li> <li>School rules and protocols shared with pupils</li> <li>White Ribbon</li> <li>Taking part in sport competitions, playing fairly by the rules</li> </ul>	Alongside learning rules and laws, pupils at Euler need to learn about freedom of choice and the right to respectfully express views and beliefs. Through the provision of a safe, supportive environment, we provide boundaries for our pupils to make choices safely. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Choice about improving their learning</li> <li>Choices around participation in extra-curricular clubs</li> </ul> Pupils are encouraged to know, understand and exercise their rights and personal freedoms safely. This is done through our PSHE Jigsaw lessons and PSHE assemblies. These lessons include teaching the pupils how to manage and understand emotions so they are equipped to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Make sustained friendships</li> <li>Deal with and resolve conflict fairly</li> <li>Manage strong feelings such as frustration or anger</li> <li>Recognise and stand up for their rights and those of others</li> <li>Recover from setbacks and persist in the face of difficulties</li> </ul>	Pupils at Euler are taught they need to be kind and respectful to others and that they have the right to be treated the same way. We celebrate promote different backgrounds and beliefs.
